

CALL FOR ENTRIES

In your Dreams is an APG showcase for creative responses to the thought that our dreams are often at the center of creative inspiration and deep personal insight. We are seeking images that speak without fear to the creative subconscious and reveal the mysteries we all have hidden in our dreams.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to all photographers eighteen years of age older residing in the United States. Photographers may enter up to ten images that relate to the theme of this show. These images do not have to form a "body of work." The makeup of the show will be at the juror's discretion. Images previously shown in a juried show at the APG Gallery are disqualified.

Open to any photo based method, style and technique. Traditional and digital prints, mixed media and installations will be considered.

JUROR

Mark Karelson Co-owner and Director of Mason Murer Fine Art Gallery and Peters Street Projects in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mason Murer Fine Art represents regional artists as well as artists from around the world, offering monumental sculpture, painting, photography, and works on paper by emerging and established artists.
